A PERSONAL WELCOME

Thank you for reaching out to American Dream Law Office®. Whatever brought you to our door — a deadline, a denial, a detained loved one, or simply a dream of building a life here — please know this: you do not have to face the immigration system alone.

I founded this firm because I believe every family deserves a fierce, honest advocate who explains the law in plain language and treats their case as if it were their own. For more than a decade, our team has stood beside clients in courtrooms and interviews across Florida and the federal courts — and we would be honored to stand beside you.

This packet is our way of being transparent before you ever sign anything. Inside you'll find who we are, exactly how we work, what our representation includes, and how to take the next step. Read it at your own pace, and bring your questions to your consultation — good questions make for strong cases.

Your dream matters. Let's protect it together.

2

Case Assessment & Strategy

We analyze the strengths, risks, and options in your matter and lay out a clear, realistic plan with expected timelines.

3

Engagement & Agreement

If you decide to move forward, we put everything in a written agreement — scope, fees, and responsibilities — so expectations are clear on both sides.

4

Preparation & Filing

Our team assembles a thorough, well-documented case, prepares you for any interview or hearing, and files on your behalf.

We appear with you and advocate on your behalf before USCIS, immigration court, or the federal courts — and keep you updated at every stage.

For most matters we charge a flat fee agreed in writing before we begin — so you know the cost up front rather than watching a clock. For complex litigation, we'll explain the fee structure clearly during your consultation.

Payment plans and financing options are available to help make representation affordable. We'll walk through what fits your budget.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I get started?

Call our office to schedule a consultation. We'll confirm the best time and let you know what documents to bring or send ahead.

What should I bring to my consultation?

Any immigration paperwork you have (notices, prior applications, court documents), identification, and — if relevant — records of any criminal matters. If you're not sure, bring what you have; we'll guide you.

Do you speak my language?

Our team serves clients in English, Spanish, and Arabic. You'll be able to discuss your case comfortably in your own language.

My case feels urgent — can you help quickly?

Yes. If a loved one is detained or you're facing a deadline, tell us when you call so we can prioritize your matter and respond as fast as possible.

How much will my case cost?

Most matters are handled on a flat fee agreed in writing before we begin. Because every case is different, we provide a specific quote after your consultation — and we offer payment plans and financing options.

Will Attorney Yakzan personally handle my case?

Ahmad leads the strategy on your matter, supported by The American Dream Team® — experienced paralegals and multilingual client-care staff who keep your case moving and keep you informed.

What if my case has already been denied or delayed?

Denials and long delays are often not the end of the road. We handle appeals, motions, and federal mandamus actions to challenge wrongful decisions and unreasonable delays. Bring the paperwork and we'll assess your options.

Can you guarantee an outcome?

No ethical attorney can guarantee a result — and you should be cautious of anyone who does. What we promise is diligent, honest, experienced advocacy and clear communication at every step.
